CELEBRATION.Mr. W. J. Bryan Addresses the Democrats of Chicago.

IS NOW A PRIVATE CITIZEN.

Party Was Never in Better Fighting
Trim—None Question May or May Not Be Prominent.

Chicago, Jan. 8.—William J. Bryan was the guest of honor at the annual banquet of the Chicago Bryan League, which was held tonight at the Sherman Hotel. Mr. Bryan did not arrive until midnight and was driven direct from the station to the banquet hall, where several hundred members of the league and their friends awaiting his arrival greeted him in enthusiastic fashion.

Mayor Harrison acted as toastmaster. Mayor Ross, of Milwaukee, San Francisco, Mayor of Chicago, and other prominent Democrats of the city were present. Mr. Bryan, who was the last of the speakers, rose to make his address. He said:

"This is the fifth consecutive Jackson day banquet which I have celebrated with the members here. I am now a private citizen, and I am placing myself in the hands of the people. I am now a private citizen, and I am placing myself in the hands of the people. I am now a private citizen, and I am placing myself in the hands of the people."

"I am now a private citizen, and I am placing myself in the hands of the people. I am now a private citizen, and I am placing myself in the hands of the people. I am now a private citizen, and I am placing myself in the hands of the people."

"It is not necessary to discuss the subject of reorganization. It is an internal matter, and it cannot be applied externally. A person must be inside the party before he can participate in its management. I am now a private citizen, and I am placing myself in the hands of the people."

"Those who are within the party lines have a right to a voice in making of the platform and are entitled to make such change in the organization of the party as they please. I am now a private citizen, and I am placing myself in the hands of the people."

"The Democratic party was never in better fighting condition than it is today. I am now a private citizen, and I am placing myself in the hands of the people. I am now a private citizen, and I am placing myself in the hands of the people."

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the blood will attack the vital organs or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles must always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sized bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

BOOZ HAZING CASE.

The ex-Cadet Signally Failed in a Legal Examination.

Philadelphia, Jan. 8.—The congressional committee which is investigating the hazing of fourth class cadets at West Point military academy resumed the taking of testimony today.

Harry Breth, of Altoona, an older brother of John Breth, whose death is also under investigation, told of a visit he and his sister paid his brother at West Point in August, 1898, in the months after his admission to the academy. John said he had been excused until he was rendered unconscious and was revived with whiskey. Harry said that hazing had become so severe that extra guards had been put on duty, and John said that such a proceeding was unusual.

When the case returned home after having been found deficient in certain studies in 1898 he seemed unwell and never was in good health after that.

Lucien Alexander, secretary of the board of examiners for the admission of law students to the Philadelphia bar, who yesterday refused to give the result of Oscar Booz's examination, said he had applied to the court of common pleas and the court had granted a plea permitting him to make answer. He then testified that Oscar Booz failed in the examination, having a general average of fifty. Mr. Alexander said he attributed his bad showing to Booz's poor eyesight.

Harro Breth was again called and exhibited three letters written by his brother when he was a cadet at West Point. In one of the letters John said he had received a large number of demerits. This, he said, was not the result of carelessness. The rules were very strict in regard to tidiness, but he had little time to keep his belongings in proper order, as he would be compelled to neglect his duties by reason of his having to attend classes which were held in the dormitory.

Another letter stated that one night "some of the worst fellows in 'C' company" took John and three others to a tent and forced them to undergo excessive exercising. John was made to "brace," "eagle," "wooden-willie," put on a rain coat and, with a cap covering his head, hold out dumbbells.

Mr. Breth, the father of John, said it was his firm conviction that the excessive hazing his son underwent made him chronically nervous, broke his health and reduced his vitality to such an extent that the young man was unable to fight the typhoid germs.

The committee adjourned to meet at West Point tomorrow. After hearing testimony at the military academy the committee will return to Washington, where other witnesses will be heard.

MESSAGE TO
LEGISLATURE.Gov. Hunt of Idaho Urges Early
Election of a U. S. Senator.

COEUR D'ALENE TROUBLES.

State Has Maintained Order at Great
Cost—Tending Minors—Tendency of Corporations Discussed.

Boise, Jan. 8.—The legislature did nothing today of importance beyond receiving Gov. Hunt's message. The message is a document of some 8,000 words. It is mainly a review of the condition of state institutions and other matters connected with the state government.

Gov. Hunt spoke in high terms of the retiring state officers, urged the election of a United States senator as quickly as possible; cited the fact that bonded indebtedness of the State had been increased $40,000 by issue of bonds for public buildings, and $7,500 for improvement of state normal school at Lewiston; the total bonded indebtedness of the State being $145,000. He cited the treasurer's report showing that state warrants outstanding were $124,175.00, these warrants selling at a premium of from 1 to 2 per cent.

He suggested that work of code commission be taken up at the earliest practical moment.

Regarding the insane asylum at Blackfoot he declared it to be a model for the state, and that it was followed by other state institutions.

He recommends the rebuilding of the Soldiers' home, partially destroyed by fire in October last.

EDUCATIONAL INTERESTS.

As to the state normal schools at Lewiston and Albion, he says the reports of both schools are very complete and comprehensive, describing at length their operations during the past two years, and their urgent need for larger appropriations to successful growth that present themselves. The interests of labor, as well as of capital, demand an arbitration law that can be put into force and effect, for the settlement and adjustment of disputes arising between employers and their men, and he recommends that such an act, constitutional and impartial in its operations, should be most carefully considered and passed.

WAR IN SOUTH AFRICA.

English Trying to Show Boers Futility of Further Resistance.

New York, Jan. 8.—A dispatch to the Tribune from London says: Earl Roberts has been closely occupied at the war office and it is believed that reinforcements will be ordered on a large scale for the moral effect in convincing Kruger and the Boers in the field that resistance is futile and that Lord Kitchener's overtures should be accepted.

The rapidity with which the details of the favorable military operations at Magaliesberg are received excites the suggestion that affairs are not going equally well in other quarters where no authentic news can be obtained.

Gen. French's cavalry division has again outmaneuvered and defeated De la Rey, possibly having driven his force out of the Witwatersrand district, although this is not quite clear from the dispatches. The mountain strongholds are less important to the Boers than formerly, since they are making little use of artillery and are depending almost entirely on their rifles and horses. French apparently has the body of mounted men requisite for the pursuit of De la Rey's burghers, but they will probably divide and break up into small bands. From Knox's headquarters there is less information than from Magaliesberg and the details of military men that something has gone wrong are not dispelled. The scene of operations against Dewet is, however, at a distance from the railway and communications are slow.

Defensive operations against the raiders who are roaming at will in the Dutch districts of Cape Colony are conducted on a large scale, but no active measures for following or heading off invaders are reported.

CONSUL GOODNOW ON CHINESE UPRISING.

Washington, Jan. 8.—Hon. John Goodnow, U. S. consul-general at Shanghai, China, who is now home on a leave of absence, is in the city.

"In discussing the Chinese uprising," said he, "it should always be borne in mind that the rebellion was confined to three of the nineteen provinces, while the other sixteen were quiet and in them foreigners were afforded protection. I am located a thousand miles from Peking, where negotiations are being conducted, but I am near enough to know that throughout the east it is coming more and more to be realized that by the United States, and in no other way, can the vexatious problems presented be solved with justice to all. The Chinese trust the United States thoroughly, knowing as they do that this country has no land grabbing designs, and while they don't hope to escape the payment of just retribution, they know that back of all our demands there is a spirit of justice and fairness. The American policy will triumph in the end."

NORFOLK AND THE POPE.

The Duke Let Religious Zeal Exceed the Bounds of Prudence.

New York, Jan. 8.—A dispatch to the Tribune from London says: The duke of Norfolk has undoubtedly allowed his religious enthusiasm to exceed the bounds of prudence. Different versions are published of the exact words which he used in his address to the pope yesterday, on the occasion of the pilgrimage to Rome of the leading English Catholics. According to the Express and the Mail, he expressed a wish for the restoration of the papal temporal power, while Reuters reports that he merely prayed for that position of temporal independence which the pope had declared necessary for the fulfillment of the duties of his charge. In any case the reference to the temporal power was untimely, for it is certain to wound the susceptibilities of the Italian press and will not be liked by Protestant England. The duke, it should be borne in mind, was a member of the government until last year, when he resigned the office of postmaster-general to serve as a volunteer with the British army in South Africa.

A WHOLE VILLAGE
Attacked by Grip—One Family Escapes by Using Per-una.

WINONA, STARK CO., I.D.
During the winter I and my family of six were taken with the gripe. The disease was very prevalent at that time in the village where I resided, nearly everyone being sick with it. Our doctors treated it as best they could, but were very unsuccessful in the treatment of it. As soon as my family were taken sick I went to the drugstore and bought six bottles of Per-una, and we all took it according to the directions given on the bottle; and although our cases seemed to be more than usually violent in the outset, yet our recovery was prompt, and we were all well much sooner than those who were treated by the regular physicians.

Many people died of this gripe during this epidemic, and few if any, were sick so short a time as myself and family. After we were all well we had one bottle of Per-una left.

printing of mineral statistics. Legislation regarding the taxation of mines and mining claims is also recommended.

Deficiency warrants were issued to cover the amount of the expense of bringing home volunteers from San Francisco, amounting to $8,293.74, for which he recommended an appropriation should now be made.

The recommendation of the state engineer especially in regard to adjudication of water rights is endorsed. Legislation is recommended to still further secure ranges from foreign migratory bands of sheep.

TENDENCY OF CORPORATIONS.

One of the growing evils of the day is the tendency of corporations, companies and individuals conducting business which is charged with a public interest—such as that of common carrier, carrier of telegraphic news intended for the general public, etc., to promote private interests by favoring a few at the expense of the many.

This favoritism is wrong in principle, and it is a building up monopolies to the detriment of the best interest of all our citizens, excepting the favored few. This tendency should, as far as possible, be checked by legislation. I therefore recommend that an act be passed making it a public offense for any corporation, company or individual doing business in this state, to discriminate against a public interest, to discriminate against any citizen, corporation or company in this State, by refusing to grant equal privileges, prices or terms to one which are given to others in this State.

Without any desire to trespass upon the prerogatives of the legislative branch, I feel that it is proper for me to suggest that one of the evils of our times is in the making of too many changes in statutory laws. The best interests of the people will be subserved by each member being particularly painstaking and careful about the introduction of bills.

SHIP SUBSIDY.

In the house today, by a vote of 29 to 26, the following memorial was adopted:

"The Honorable Senate of the United States, Washington, D. C.: Greeting: Realizing that special privilege of any citizen relative to the American flag, and believing that the measure now before your honorable body, known as the ship subsidy bill, contemplates the conferring of such special privilege on the basis of nationality, we believe that the said measure merits your disapproval."

Therefore, the Sixth Idaho assembly urgently memorialize the Senate of the United States to reject the said measure."

STERE IDEWILD BURNED.

She Drifts About Setting Fire to Several Vessels and Docks.

New York, Jan. 9.—The harbor excursion steamboat Idewild, which was tied up for the winter at Beard's "farm" dock at the foot of Richards street, Erie Basin, Brooklyn, caught fire early this morning. She drifted from her moorings into the basin and solidified with the steamship St. Dunstan, of Liverpool, owned by Danan and Gilmore, which also caught fire. The dock at Richards street was already in flames from the burning vessel. Capt. Sorley of the St. Dunstan, and his crew of thirty-eight men, were rescued by small boats. The Idewild then drifted to another dock at the foot of Van Brunt street, which, likewise, was set on fire. Beard's stores at Van Brunt street, a four-story structure containing oil, kerosene, tins of soda and other material, was in flames at this time also. The burning nitrate of soda resulted in several explosions. At 3 o'clock the fire was extinguished. The stores were slightly damaged. The Idewild was almost totally destroyed, the St. Dunstan practically
